

MONDAY 30TH JULY

DEMONSTRATION NIGHT

Monotype
With Bridget Seaton

Bridget will demonstrate how she creates monotypes using dynamic and intricate mark making techniques, using the reduction method with oil-based inks.

Bridget gets her inspiration from the Australian bush and will donate a portion of the proceeds to the association "Active the Wheatbelt" (a community program where volunteers work with farmers to plant native species on farmland.)

Canning Arts Group

Corner of High
and Riley Roads
Riverton

7:00pm For 7:30
Start

Cost
$2:00 Members
$5:00 Non Members

Supper Provided

All
Welcome

Bridget is an art teacher who teaches adults and children in book making and mono printing