Discover your natural drawing ability with Ochirbat (Ogi). Learn to sketch and begin your visual diary. The visual diary is the main source of an artist's study. In each lesson, Ogi will take you through sketching exercises using basic characteristic of the various drawing/sketching mediums ie pencil, charcoal, brush & ink and pastel. Students will sketch from photographic as well as 3D source as reference.

Following this course student will have the beginnings of a visual diary from which to help them select drawing mediums suitable for their future drawings. The practice of sketching using a variety of materials is quite interesting and exciting for students to discover possibilities in their drawing. Come along to discover and start your journey in sketching and drawing!
